

school staff summer workshop

Learning Community

: ecosystem approach to school food gardens

JULY 19, 2013

10 am - 3 pm

Winchester PS

: curriculum & practice, compost, food, nature, environment, inquiry

$ 30 before July 1 /$ 45 after lunch included

generously sponsored by the Community Environment Fund of the Ontario Natural Foods Co-operative

WHO: Teachers, Caretakers, Education Assistants, others (inquire)

PLACE: Winchester Public School, 15 Prospect St., near Parliament and Wellesley Sts, downtown Toronto.

WHAT: School Food Garden Ecosystems -- One-Day Workshop

REGISTRATION: Contact Sunday Harrison for more information and to register. Email: sunday@kidsgrowing.ca, or call 416-876-1480.

Explore hands-on activities, and take home elementary lesson plans linked to curriculum

Learn about plants and compost; gardening tips specific to school gardens, Q&A

Planning food for humans, food for butterflies: designing naturalized spaces and food gardens

Gardens tour: Rose Ave. PS, Sprucecourt PS & Winchester PS.

PRESENTED BY: Sunday Harrison, Masters of Environmental Studies Candidate, Program Director and Founder, Green Thumbs Growing Kids. GTGK is a charitable organization that has been partnering with multiple schools supporting their gardens since 2001. Visit www.kidsgrowing.ca for more information. Special guests include Erin Temple, Masters of Health Science Candidate, Nutrition Communication, and Robin Buyers, Professor, Community Worker Program, George Brown College.